POLICY PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to provide guidance on the Gifts & Hospitality pre-approval limits & thresholds.

This guidance applies to all employees, governors, temporary staff & volunteers.

Employees must not offer or accept Gifts or Hospitality except in accordance with this guidance

This guidance does not apply to internal Gifts & Hospitality which do not involve third parties i.e. from one Bursley employee to another Bursley employee or attendance by Bursley at an internal Bursley event.

1 DEFINITIONS OF GIFTS & HOSPITALITY

1.1 Gifts

Gifts are defined as any item of value given or received from a third party (customer, supplier, associated party etc.). Examples include but are not limited to; wine, champagne, jewellery, gift baskets, hampers, legacy bequests.

Hospitality refers to any hospitality given or received by an employee & includes but is not limited to; meals, drinks, concerts, charitable events, leisure activities, conferences, sporting & social events including related travel, food & accommodation costs which are not paid for by the employee or reimbursed by Bursley.

This does not relate to training events booked in the normal manner.

2 GENERAL PRINCIPLES

2.1 Proportionality

- The Gift or Hospitality should be reasonable & proportionate to the recipient's role (not donor's wealth).
- All Gifts & Hospitality must be clearly connected to a legitimate business activity & have a clear business purpose.
- The giving or receiving does not create an actual or perceived conflict of interest.
- Gifts & Hospitality must not be part of a repeated pattern of giving / receiving from the same individual or supplier in the previous 12 months.
- Employees & their line managers (where approval is required) are responsible for ensuring that the value, frequency & timing of Gifts & Hospitality offered or received do not make them inappropriate or excessive & do not breach the limits & thresholds set in this guidance.

- For hospitality involving spouses &/or family members of employees, the value must be recorded against the member of staff, except for internal Bursley events where there is no requirement to record. Gifts should not be accepted for spouses or family members.

- It is best to decline in private & in person. However, if this is not possible simply telephone or write a letter expressing regret for declining the gift but thanking the donor for their thoughtfulness.
- In exceptional circumstances, where it may not be possible to return a gift, the Academy will donate the gift to charity but prior approval must be obtained from the Chair of Governors.
